Excellence Ireland Quality Association info@eiqa.com		Our principle is that our customers have to achieve a real result, which we track through research, as a result of completing a certification or solution business with us. We have implemented several new mechanisms to ensure this happens, which we believe would be useful to other organisations. We have invested heavily in Information Technology solutions to provide best practice, operational, financial, customer and employee processes and benchmarking data.

Ministry of Eco. / EKONOM-SERVIS dianammura@gmail.com		Our advantage is communication and co-operation in benchmarking projects with the state bodies, because our centre is based in Ministry of Economy. Our benchmarking projects are aimed not just for individual companies but also for sectoral studies which are used by state administration. We are open for any international joined projects and we could help with Slovak information in case of possible e.g. EU studies etc...
